

Can I Eat That? Activity Pack

Perfect for your Pre-schoolers.
Ages 3-5

Inspired by Can I Eat That? (published by Phaidon), the simple activities on these sheets will be lots of fun for little ones. Cutting, coloring, drawing, sticking, choosing, writing and rhyming will not only encourage children to get creative but will also exercise their fine motor skills and simple logic-based decision making.

Can I Eat That for Breakfast?

What would you like to eat?

Color me in

Draw and color OR cut and stick some food
on the plate.

To purchase your copy of
Can I Eat That? visit
phaidon.com/childrens2016

Younger children may need some help with this.

To purchase your copy of Can I Eat That? visit phaidon.com/childrens2016

Decorate your Dinner

Wrap your flags round drinking straws to decorate your drinks.

Cut-out, color and stick together these flags to dress-up your dinner.

- You will need:
- Scissors
 - Colored pens, pencils or crayons
 - Cocktail sticks
 - Gluestick

What to do:

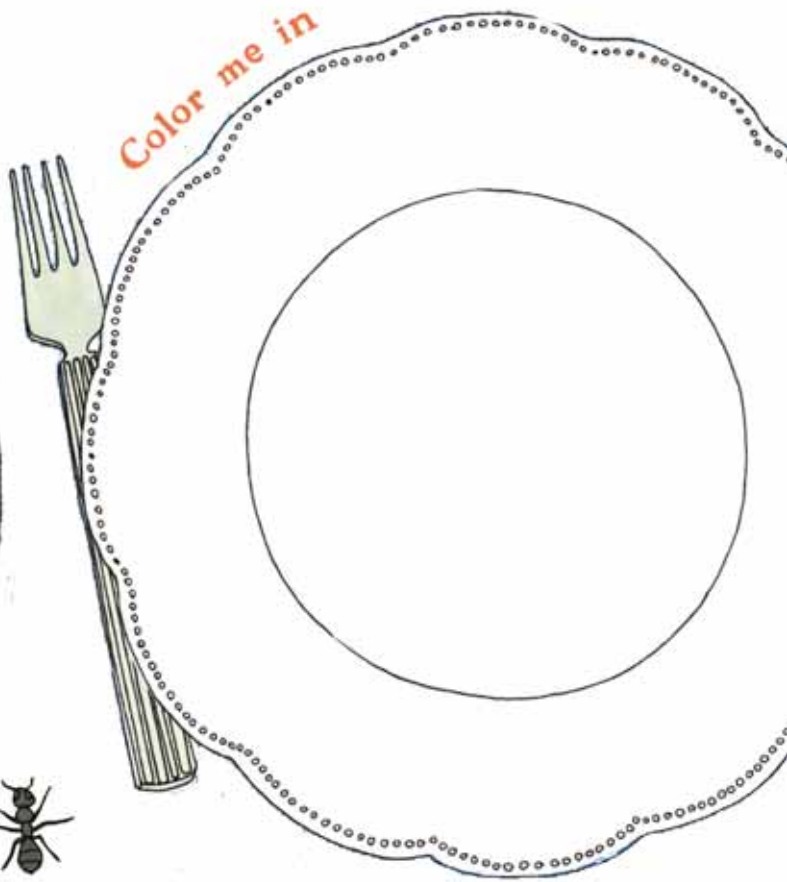

1. Design and color your flags then carefully cut them out.
2. Fold each flag around a cocktail stick and stick the two flag backs together.
3. Use your flags to decorate your dinner or stick them in sandwiches, fruit or cupcakes.

To purchase your copy of Can I Eat That? visit phaidon.com/childrens2016

Create a Feast for a Friend

What would your friend enjoy eating?
Draw and colour something tasty for lunch and dinner on the plates.

Write your friend's name on this card.

.....

To purchase your copy of
Can I Eat That? visit
phaidon.com/childrens2016

Rhyme time

Draw lines to join the words into rhyming pairs.

Pear

Pea

Bear

Ape

Goose

Ants

Grape

Juice

Bee

Underpants

Can you come up with any more rhyming partners for the pictures?

To purchase your copy of Can I Eat That? visit phaidon.com/childrens2016